Mr. Dave Maleare
Marmaduke, Arkansas

Dear Brother Maleare:

It was certainly a pleasure to have been permitted to spend several days with you bretheren in our mutual effort. I brought home with me many memories and experiences to be cherished. I arrived home about 11:30 A.M., having made the trip without incident.

I certainly hope that Brother Evans was successful in baptizing several more people in the last three services of the meeting. I certainly regret having been forced to come home sooner than was originally planned, yet I feel that my decision to do so was warranted. Sunday we baptized one and one was restored; therefore, the reason for my feeling as I do.

Please give my best regards to the entire congregation. I appreciate very ddeeply having had the opportunity to work and be associated with you and the other bretheren. I hope as a result of our labors together much and lasting good may have been done for the cause of Christ in your area.

I am definitely looking forward to the time when we may be associated in a similar effort.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
